RE: Testimonial letter for Damien Se Chong Hian

Damien is currently appointed as the Student Exco Team Leader (Innovation and Competition) of our IAD Academic Club CCA. Damien exhibits good leadership qualities when leading the IAD Club Student Exco members to organise and mobilise our IAD course students to run club activities such as our IAD Club BootCamp last year. He demonstrates initiative to plan team bonding activities with the rest of the student Exco members as well as to plan the logistics and publicity for the team bonding sessions, technical workshops and student competitions. He leads by example by volunteering to come back on afternoons after school to prepare the logistics and publicity for the events.

Damien is a polite and diligent student who has a positive attitude towards learning and upgrading himself. He is disciplined and diligent to complete his school projects on time and is not one to shy away from taking on challenges.

He is also helpful and willing to assist the weaker members of his project group.

Damien also has demonstrated his competence in web development and has good programming skills which can be seen in his school projects.

I recommend Damien and he will be an asset to whichever school /organisation he is placed in.

Thank you.

Yours Sincerely,

Winston Gan
